

MARRIAGES

DAMES JOHNSON—September 10th. at Wicklow, his Grace the Archbishop of Dublin, assisted by Canon A. Duff-Moore. Kenneth Laurence Dames, of Knowsley and Herne Bay. to Emily, eldest daughter of Canon and Mrs. P. B. Johnson, of Wicklow.

Published: Wednesday 17 September 1924

Newspaper: Northern Whig

County: Antrim, Northern Ireland

Type: Article | Words: 290 | Page: 1 | Tags: none

MRS DAMES GENEALOGY

From <http://www.ocotilloroad.com/geneal/johnson1.html> with kind permission of Chris Gosnell

Emily (Johnson) Dames

Birth: 9 April 1894, in Dublin South district, county Dublin, Ireland

Father: Philip Bernard Johnson

Mother: Elizabeth Charlotte Annie (Pope) Johnson

Married: Kenneth L. Dames in 1924, in Rathdrum district, county Wicklow, Ireland. Kenneth was educated at Oxford University where he obtained a M.A., and was headmaster at Harlow College in Harlow, Essex, England from 1936 until 1962.

Notes: Kenneth and Emily were both keen archers. This photo of Emily plucking her arrows from the target (NB copyright photograph) during practice on 16 July 1948 is titled "Archery Champion" and notes that Mrs K. L. Dames is a possible candidate for the British team at the annual World Archery Championships in Dulwich.

Census:

1911: 14 Belgrave Road, Monkstown, county Dublin

Sources:

- Birth: Ireland Birth Index (2Q1894 Dublin South vol 2 p686); exact date from Rootsweb WorldConnect \(Christopher Richards\)
- Parents: 1911 census; Rootsweb WorldConnect \(Christopher Richards\)
- Marriage: Ireland Marriage Index (3Q1924 Rathdrum vol 2 p671); Kenneth education and occupation from Old Harlovians web site
- Notes: The Antient Scorton Silver Arrow by Ben Hird