21.2.73. Committee meeting, present:- Porcher S., WEST, COOK, TAYLOR, FOULDS, PORCHER. C., SLATER, PRIOR, DYKE.

The meeting started at 7.55 pm. The price of this years dinner was discussed and agreed at £2.00 per head. Estimated 45 members would attend, providing £90.00, allowing £50.00 for the dinner, £30.00 for entertainment and £10.00 for sundries. Colin Porcher suggested that the first Saturday in May should be a permanent date for the dinner, this proposal to be put forward at the dinner. It was also suggested that a list of names of those attending this years dinner should be sent out with the invitations to next years dinner. It would encourage more people to attend if they knew the people that were attending. Mr S Porcher reported that he had recently visited Mrs. Dames and discussed a memorial to K.L. Dames. Mrs. Dames was in favour. The question of the cups in Mrs. Dames possession was discussed. A proposal that these be valued and possibly sold, the proceeds to start a K.L. Dames Memorial Fund, was put forward. The address book of members was read through and amendments made on committee members information. Meeting closed 10.50 p.m.

OLD HARLOVIANS REUNION

1972

Dear Member,

The Invitation you have been expecting has now arrived!

The Reunion Dinner is at:

VENUE: The Railway Hotel,
Bishops Stortford.

DATE: Saturday, 22nd April, 1972

DINNER: 7.00 p.m. for 7.30 p.m.

CABARET: Sandy Sandford (Comedian)

TICKET: £1.80 each.

It is a pleasure to receive so many telephone calls concerning the Reunion and it looks as though, for many members, this is an annual fixture that they do not wish to miss. Remember - it is a time to meet old friends.

Your Committee looks forward to seeing you on the 22nd April.

King Regards,

A. G. EASTWOOD.
