

ROY CHARLES PURGAVIE was born on 13 Sep 1913 in Poplar, London, United Kingdom. He died in Sep 1968 in Southampton, Hampshire, England (Age: 54). He married Emilie Margaret Allan, son of Allan and Tattersall in Sep 1955 in Buckrose, Yorkshire East Riding. He was born in Sep 1917 in Halifax, Yorkshire. He died on 21 Oct 1964 in Northfield Hospital, Driffield, Yorkshire, England (Age: 47 Death registered in district of Buckrose, Yorkshire.).

Notes for Roy Charles Purgavie:

Using the title Lieutenant Commander, on the 22nd of August 1956 he boarded the SS Warwick Castle at the port of London bound for Mombassa, Kenya where he intended to reside. His last address had been 59 Bellfield Ave, Hull, Yorkshire and he gave his occupation as "Schoolmaster" His marital status stated he was single.

No 59 Bellfield Ave was his sister Margery's home. Roy had married Emilie Allan in September 1955 yet by August 1956 he was living with his sister and declaring himself to be single! Emilie died in Yorkshire in 1964.

1945	24 Nov	Appointed Temporary Sub-Lieutenant (Special Branch) RNVR
1948	28 Jul	Appointed Sub-Lieutenant (Sp)
1948	Oct	Sub Lieutenant (Sp) RNVR
1948	19 Nov	Appointed Lieutenant RNVR Sea Cadet Corps
1951		Lieutenant RNVR Sea Cadet Corps

Comment from one of his students at Harlow College:

This guy was a one off! He regularly caned me for smoking, but when I had a REAL problem he sat me down in his office, offered me a cigarette(which I refused - I wasn't THAT stupid) and then spent the next hour or so listening to me, gave me some very good advice which I remembered, and ran me to Epping station so I could go home.