

George Tarry - personal profile

I arrived at the school in 1954 and left in 1956, going into what was then called Ra and left after 5a to go on to do my A levels elsewhere (because the College didn't do that, as we know).

Mr Dames was headmaster.

I remember Peter Clear and Jack Daniels in my class, among others.

After a few years I went to Bristol Old Vic Theatre School and became an actor for about ten years, then a teacher for a while. I'm now a scriptwriter, living in Sussex, near Lewes.

I can't say any of us can call Harlow College a good school but I remember it fondly.
